

The KCC Foundation
John M. Fulton Distinguished Alumnus Award Form

The John M. Fulton Distinguished Alumnus Award is named for long-time KCC Alumni Association member John Fulton of Herscher, Illinois. Formerly called the KCC Foundation Distinguished Alumnus Award, it was renamed in Fulton's honor after he received the distinction in 2009. Fulton is a 1977 graduate of KCC. He has two associate degrees, one in business and the other in general studies. As a decorated Vietnam War hero, he is a tireless advocate for veteran's affairs and for people with disabilities. Fulton is a farmer, friend, and a source of pride and inspiration.

To be considered, recipients must meet the following criteria:

- Outstanding success and distinction in their chosen field
- Humanitarian service that has proven beneficial to society
- Continued interest in and support of education and community colleges
- Overcoming life's obstacles
- Completion of a recognized program of instruction at Kankakee Community College
